New Hinckley's Market Celebrates Grand Opening

The "Super market with the country market flavor," will hold its grand opening today after completion of a remodeling program. The present owner of Hinckley's Market is Tom Hinckley who is aided by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hinckley. Mrs. Hinckley is the original owner of the market which was established in Lomita over 25 years ago.

PTA Group Schedules Talk on Civil Defense

George Powell, assistant director of Civil Defense for Torrance, will speak at a public meeting next Tuesday evening, at the Fern Elementary School cafeteria beginning at 7:30, it was announced here yesterday. Powell's appearance to discuss Civil Defense as it applies to Torrance is being sponsored by the Parent Education Section of the Fern-Greenwood PTA. The public is being invited to attend the meeting.

Hinckley's Market is located at 24020 Narbonne Ave., and its doors will be open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sundays included. The grand opening Thursday will continue through April 15 and 16.

There will be plenty of help on hand to care for the needs of the customers in every department of the super-market.

Five Radiators Stolen

Five radiators, valued at $25, were stolen from the Atlantic Auto Parts, 19020 S. Figueroa St., Tuesday, W. C. Magnus reported to sheriff's deputies.

from produce to groceries. Hinckley's have a permanent staff of 11, and ample parking space is provided for customers convenience.

The Hinckley family is well known in this area having been residents of Lomita since 1923. There are three sons in the family, Tom, Leo, and Frank, who is now a Lt. Col. in the U. S. Air Force.

Sepulveda Gardens Meeting Scheduled

A special meeting of the Sepulveda Gardens Homeowners Assn. will be held at the Seaside Elementary School next Tuesday evening at 7:30 to discuss street lighting for the area. It was announced here yesterday by Eileen Goetz, president of the group.

INTERIOR OF STORE . . . Shoppers visiting the new Hinckley's market on Narbonne Ave. this week-end will find a modern supermarket with the "country store" atmosphere of friendliness. The new market has been expanded and features departmentalized marketing facilities which will make shopping chores a snap.

MAN FALLS ASLEEP, HITS PHONE POLE

Raul Arellano Alvarez, 27, of 2828 W. 223rd St., was treated for cuts and bruises on his head and arms at Harbor General Hospital early Saturday morning, after his car crashed into a telephone pole in the 300 block on W. Carson St. Alvarez told Sheriff's deputies that he had apparently fallen asleep at the wheel.

Deputies Seek Who-Dun-It Fan In Mail Theft

If sheriff's deputies had two of the books that Knox Johnson, of 1053 W. Flat St., reported stolen Sunday, they might have some help in solving the theft. Someone opened a package of books in his mailbox and stole two of them, Johnson said. The books were "The World's Greatest Detective Stories" and "The World's Greatest Adventure Stories."
